

Wednesday June 26 – Day 12: Aswan, Depart Cruise, Visit Temple of Aset (Isis), Check into Aswan Hotel
 After breakfast we Disembark our cruise ship. Today we will journey to the Temple of Aset where we arrive via small boat and we will have time to visit this magnificent site. We will also enjoy some shopping at a local bazaar.

We then return to our hotel for dinner our overnight accommodation.

Hotel name	Phone no.	Adress	City
Helnan Aswan	(002) 097 2328828	Cornish El Nile Street	Aswan www.helnan.com

Thursday June 27 – Day 13: VERY VERY Early Morning Flight From Aswan to Cairo

We will fly from Aswan to Cairo. We will have a boxed breakfast. We will go to the pyramid of Sakkara, built by the high priest, architect, physician and magus, Imhotep. Sakkara is said to be the oldest known of Egypt’s 107 pyramids. Sakkara seems to have been the first area where limestone was employed, not only for the outer casing of the pyramid but also to cover interior walls. Then we will have a light snack/lunch on board the bus, and go to the Giza Plateau to visit the Pyramids and the Sphinx (Heru-M-Akhet). Then we will be transferred by air-conditioned coach to the hotel, Le Meridien Pyramids Hotel where we will have Pyramid View Rooms For A Beautiful Spiritual Ending To The Trip.

Hotel	Le Merdien pyramids . (002) 0233777070	Giza /pyramids	Giza	www.starwoodhotels.com/lemeridien/
-------	--	----------------	------	--

Friday June 28 – Day 14, Depart for USA.

After an early breakfast (or boxed breakfasts), we will Check-out of hotel and transfer to Cairo International Airport grateful for all that we experienced. HTP (Peace)!

Note: The Itinerary is at tentative; adjustments may be made to the schedule up to the time of the trip.